Pages: 252

Volumes:

Condition: As New

Jacket Condition: Good

Binding: Hardcover

Description: Dust jacket has small tear on front cover. The first half of the 19th century was a great era for Egyptology, it had started with Bonapartes Egyptian campaign. But in 1825, twenty five year old Ippolito Rosellini, a theology graduate and an expert in oriental languages, visited Florence where he met Champollion who, thanks to the Rosetta Stone, had just succeeded in deciphering hieroglyphic writing. This was to be a turning point in Rosellinis life as he had not only found a mentor, but above all a friend. Through painters skill and the stunning vigor of the pigments used, every one of the plates featured in Egypt and Nubia brings the treasures of an exceptional civilization to life in vivid colour. Egypt and Nubia opens with a learned introduction by two Egyptologists of high renown, Christian Leblanc and Angelo Sesana.
