Edition:

Book Size: 300mm x 240mm

Pages: 96

Volumes: 1

Condition: As New

Jacket Condition: As New

Binding: Hardcover

Description: BSA joined the field late in 1910, but from the start, they built solid, reliable motorcycles backed by an efficient service and spares network to suit the buying public. While BSA maintained this tradition they prospered. Along the way there were classics, the round tank and sloper of the 20s and the stars of the 30s, Blue Empire, silver and Gold. The postwar era brought new ranges and a new slogan, from the Bantam to the Golden flash, two of their most popular machines. The Gold star returned to become a cult model, there were rockets and spitfires, Barracudas and shooting stars. Later came the mighty Rocket 3 and then the final sad days. The BSA story is presented here in an effective combination of words and pictures, many in full colour, enhancing the story of a marque that continues as one of the most popular on the classic bike scene. £4.50 postage and packing.

Description: Aston Martin is one of the greatest sports car makers the world has ever seen, and its cars have always possessed a blend of style, and excitement that is little short of unique. This lavishly illustrated book chronicles the company's remarkable history, and the fine cars it has created for road and track over the last 90 years. Throughout its history Aston Martin often struggled to make money, but it still produced amazing cars, including the powerful V8 Vantage, the astonishing Lagonda, The elegant Volante drophead, and the stylish Bulldog prototype. In recent years, following a takeover by Ford, the DB series has returned with the DB7, and a new V12 engine has been developed by Cosworth to power the Vanquish, a 196mph Ferrari beating supercar. James Bond was back in an Aston, a Vanquish, in die another day, and Aston Martins future is looking bright. Illustrated throughout in full colour, The ultimate history of Aston Martin chronicles the company's incredible struggle for survival throughout its 90 year history, and the fabulous cars it has created. From the classic racing and road cars to the stylish supercars of today, every important Aston Martin model is included with detailed James Bonds famous Goldfinger DB5, and the Vanquish from the latest film Die another day.
