Description: Dust Jacket is worn and torn. One mans Adventure on the Ascent of Everest 1953. All of us who climbed Everest have brought back imperishable memories of those momentous months last spring and summer, memories not only of what we did, but of how we felt in the doing. But unlike most of his companions, Wilfrid Noyce was ever recording his thoughts as they came to him, day by day, almost hour by hour. My most vivid memory of him was his patient perseverance in the writing of his journal.
